BATTLE NEAR EUREKA.

At last the threatened storm has broken loose near Eureka. The Carbonari yesterday attacked the Sheriff's posse, the former losing five men, as stated in the following telegram to Colonel G. G. Lyon, Private Secretary to the Governor:

EUREKA, Aug. 19.

TO COLONEL GEORGE G. LYON.—Yesterday at six o'clock P. M. about one hundred coal burners attacked Sheriff Kyle's posse at Fish Creek, about thirty miles from here, when firing ensued. Five coal burners were killed and eight or ten wounded. None of the Sheriff's force were hurt. The coal burners first opened fire on the Sheriff's men. The city is quiet.

G. M. SABIN.

The temporary absence of the Governor and Lieutenant Governor from the State will not interfere with the prompt action of the militia under command of Brigadier General G. M. Sabin, as his troops were placed on a war footing before His Excellency left here. In the case of future emergency the troops will likely be taken to the front.

The following additional report was received last evening relative to the outbreak of difficulties at Fish Creek:

EUREKA, Nev., August 19.—The coal war has broken out afresh. A Sheriff's posse attacked a coal ranch at Fish Creek between sundown and dark last evening. Many shots were fired, and five Italians killed and six badly wounded. Several prisoners were also taken. A messenger arrived at 4 o'clock this morning from the scene of the battle. He immediately returned, accompanied by Corporal Smith and Dr. Thomas, the latter going out to look after the wounded. The bodies of the killed are expected in this evening. There is great excitement over the affair, and all sorts of rumors are in circulation. None of the Sheriff's posse received a scratch in the fight. This causes many people to believe that the coal burners were not armed. On the other hand, the messenger says that the Italians fired the first shot. The exact truth cannot be ascertained until the Corporal's return. The Sheriff's party numbered nineteen, as follows: Deputy Sheriff Simpson, Billy Martin, Joe Toomey, Bob Brown, M. Rich, Jim Porter, and John Storey. The messenger asserts that they were confronted by over one hundred Italians, all well armed. General Sabin, commanding this division, had on yesterday issued an order relieving the military from active duty. On learning this morning of the Fish Creek fight he promulgated another order mustering them in again. It is not unlikely, if the Italians show fight, that there will be some bloody work in this neighborhood within the next few days.

GIVE HIM A RECEPTION.—Our distinguished and honored Senator, Hon. John P. Jones, will pass through here for his home at Gold Hill to-morrow. The honorable gentleman has so far faithfully and brilliantly represented us in the U. S. Senate, and we are confident that he will do so in the future. He has done much for this State's great and principal industry, and he is entitled to the profoundest love and respect of all good citizens of this Commonwealth. In view of these facts, it would be the proper thing to give him an enthusiastic reception to-morrow morning, even if it be for only a few minutes, during the stoppage of the train here. Let us show the Senator that we endorse his course, and give evidence of the esteem we harbor for him.

A PIONEER.—John Harrill, who mined where Bodie now stands, in 1856, came in from the southern country yesterday afoot, with his blankets strapped to his back. He is a hale, hearty old man of 57 years. He went to Bodie from California in the early part of last year with some money, which he invested in Bodie stock at 80 cents per share, upon which he realized about $25,000. Last Fall when Sierra Nevada reached $250, he purchased all he could get on a fifty per cent. margin, and before he knew it his $25,000 were swallowed up. Since then he has been at work at Bodie and Aurora doing odd jobs. Pretty tough.

SIDES AGAIN.—Sides, the Piute, interviewed us yesterday. He was concerned about the old mahala who yielded to the seductive influence of a young buck some time ago. Sides says she is all right now, and "come back to her children." He says, "newspaper man he not understand," they never meant to tie her to a pony; they never do that. "What, never?" we asked. "No never." "What, never?" "Well, hardly ever." And Sides went off happy, under the assurance that we would say as much for him, publicly.

SIGNS OF DULLNESS.—A Carson gentleman who had been to Virginia and returned last evening, remarked to a friend that Virginia is very dull. He was asked what gave him that impression. "Well," said he, "formerly when I went to that city I could get drunk in two hours without spending a cent, but yesterday I was only asked to drink once; that's sign enough for me that the town is dull."

THOSE ODORS.—Who is responsible? There is a stench on Main street near the Ormsby House, which makes one's eyes water. It is claimed that there is not water enough to cleanse the sewers. If so, all kinds of filth ought not to be run into them. Not only sanitary laws, but personal comfort demands it.

U. S. COURTS.—The U. S. Circuit Court has adjourned to meet on the first Monday in September. In the U. S. District Court yesterday, the respective cases of Hall and Schwab, of Storey County, bankrupts, came up, but were continued to the 26th, to which date the Court adjourned.

IN TOWN.—Mr. J. L. Ayres, President of the North Carson Mining Co., is in the city.

DISTRICT COURT.

This Court met yesterday morning at the appointed hour, and the case of McConnell tried and submitted to the jury. Jury rendered a verdict of not guilty.

On motion of District Attorney Driesbach, and good cause being shown, all other indictments against the firm of Pixley and McConnell were squashed and the matter dismissed from the Court.

The case of B. F. Small, receiver, etc., vs. Mason Bros. was tried and submitted. Both sides were granted twenty days to file briefs.

THE WONDER.—The receptions of Miss Millie-Christine were very well attended yesterday. All who visited the theatre hall were satisfied that the woman is the most wonderful and eccentric of all of nature's productions. Millie-Christine and the dwarfs leave for Reno to-day.

A GENTLEMAN who came from Genoa yesterday, says that a demoralizing dullness prevails in that village. One can fire six shooters on the main street all day without hurting anybody. Possibly the place may soon be fenced in for pasturing stock and cattle.

DEPARTURES.—The following passengers departed on the southern stage yesterday morning: M. Marks, F. Oiler, Ed. Wilson, C. McLain, S. Marks, wife and two children, Miss S. McConnell, Mrs. Ruden and child, P. F. Tracy, J. L. Irwin, L. Jacinto.

"SAGEBRUSH LEAVES."—A letter received here from the Secretary of the "Sagebrush Leaves" Committee, says that the whole first edition has been exhausted, and that it may be several weeks before the second edition will be ready for distribution.

SURPRISE PARTY.—The members of the M. E. Church gave their pastor, Rev. J. T. Ladd, a surprise party last evening. They met at Dr. Herrick's and then went to the residence of Rev. J. D. Hammond, where a most delightful time was had.

A LARGE Chinese funeral took place yesterday. The usual quantity of baked meats followed the procession, which was left at the grave. How the average Washoe Indian must have watered in anticipation of a nocturnal feast.

MR. WEST GEORGE returned from Bodie last evening. He says the impression prevails there that the Tioga and Mono mines will make a big showing soon, although the managers of these properties keep the matter very quiet.

ARRIVALS.—The following passengers arrived on the southern stage yesterday afternoon: J. P. Kelly, West. George, J. C. Ogden, Mas. Kelly, A. Y. Ross, M. Tobey, Henry Stevens, Mrs. Woodruff, Miss Mary Wilson.

HOODLUM boys steal Chinese peddlers' fruit while the latter enter houses for the purpose of effecting sales. Carson boys are becoming fearfully bad. It will be requisite to establish a pound for them pretty soon.

DEAD.—The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Lewis died yesterday, and will be buried from the residence at 11 o'clock to-day. The parents have our sympathy in their bereavement.

RETURNED.—Mrs. Davis, wife of Rev. George R. Davis, Rector of St. Peter's parish, returned to this city on Monday, after having spent a few pleasant months with her friends in the East.

HON. C. C. POWNING, of the Reno Journal, was in the city yesterday. The Senator has deprived himself of his beautiful blonde side whiskers, and look like "one of the boys," just now.

CHIARINI'S Royal Italian Circus is billed to appear in this city on the 23rd instant. This arena exhibition will be the best ever seen in Carson. See advertisement in another column.

EVERYBODY likes it, it is pleasant to take, and a prompt physic. If you are bilious or constipated, try it. The great anti-bilious remedy, syrup of figs. For sale by all druggists. a12.*

GENERAL CLARKE went to Paradise last night. He will be absent several days.
